New Director of Campus Ministry

Dan Holland became our new Director of Campus Ministry this past September. Originally from Scranton, Pennsylvania, he has two older sisters and two nieces. Dan is in his 9th year in Campus Ministry having worked at Southern Illinois, West Virginia, a few months in Waverly, Iowa, as well as at Arkansas State University. He also works for the Catholic Campus Ministry Association, a job he continues to hold. Dan received his undergraduate degree at the University of Missouri and has a Master's in Theology from St. Meinrad in Indiana. Dan has two main goals in working with college students: to help them build a community amongst themselves as well as members of the Farmville community, and to help build them become leaders, both in our Catholic and secular community.

Fall Retreat

During this past fall we had our 2nd annual retreat with the Lynchburg and Lexington campus ministries. Our focus was on the Good Shepherd leaving the 99 for the one lost sheep. As one student reflected on the weekend they stated, "I feel like my faith will be better after this weekend."

Kicked off the year once again with a hike and Mass offered by our chaplain Fr. Tochi Iwuji

Our chapel where we offer weekly Mass, Reconciliation, and Adoration

It is with your support that we are able to spread the word of God. To donate either mail us a check at 158 South Street, Farmville, VA, 23901 or go to our website farmvilleccm.org. Please know you are in our prayers.
